

The Lion the Witch and the Wardrobe

LUCY

But Mr. Tumnus... how could you help someone who would do something like that? I don't believe you were just pretending to be my friend. If you help me get back to my family, I promise we'll find a way to help save you from her!

TUMNUS

Come with me, Lucy. (He leads her out. )

TUMNUS

We must be swift and silent - her spies are everywhere. Even some of the trees are on her side. Here, this is where I met you.

LUCY

Thank you, Mr. Tumnus. I promise I will be back to help you.

TUMNUS

It would be better if you never returned to Narnia. It has been lost. But I am glad to have met you. It was like a little bit of summer returned to my home. Now you must go back to yours. Go!

(She goes. Peter, Susan and Edmund enter as Lucy comes back through the Wardrobe)

PETER

I've never known anyone so utterly stupid in all my life! Trying to climb inside a suit of armor in the dark ...

EDMUND

It was a joke. I was trying to hide.

SUSAN

Haha!

EDMUND

I was going to make you all jump.

SUSAN

And did you think for one moment about the noise you would make?

PETER

Of course he didn't.

EDMUND

And anyway I've cut my finger.

PETER

Oh, Edmund.
